IT MUSCT BE A DICTATED PEACE

Lyman Abbott, the venerable editor of The Outlook, speaks well: "Any man who proposes a compromise with Germany or a peace power. Such a thing is inevitable in negotiation with this band of brigands is a traitor."

That is the truth in a nutshell.

Peace by negotiation means concessions and compromises here and there of advantage to Germany. It means a calm acceptance of the pledge of the Huns for some things presumably agreed upon in the interest of permanent peace.

Over and over again since August, 1914, it has been demonstrated that the Huns cannot be trusted. They have violated not only their most sacred treaty obligations, they have broken mutual pledges with respect to the conduct of the war, and they have committed acts of savagery against defenseless women and children and helpless old men which in their fiendish and wanton cruelty surpass anything that intelligent human beings ever before employed in warfare.

What, then, should be done with a nation such as this? Surely it cannot again be accepted in full fellowship by the family of civilized nations. The other peoples of the world cannot again enter into trade and fraternal relations with them and regard them as worthy of trust and confidence.

No. The peace that is made with the German autocrats must be a dictated peace. They must be told what the world expects of are sorely twisting the sacrificial them in the future, not asked what they are willing to concede.

After this war is over there must be neither Hohenzollern nor Hapsburg on any throne in Europe, and it must be made impossible for some generations at east for brutes of the Hindenburg type to conduct a war of frightfulness like the one which is now devastating Without it we are confronted with a the face of the earth.

This is the spirit in which American is making war.

The contest may be long and cruel and bloody. It may take from their firesides and from their occupations millions of the finest of our young men and hundreds of thousands of the cream of our mature manhood, but, in the name of that God who has ever been the foundation of our faith in ultimate good, we will keep the faith and crawl on damp days. fight this Thing until it is banished from earth.

Nothing less than this will satisfy. Nothing less will make this world "a decent place to live."

It said thousands of men are given employment in the agricultural department who ought to be in the Business, Short Hand, Type Writing and Telegraphy draft lists and take their chances of going to war. If we intend to maintain the man-power of this nation we will have to abolish the slacker. The government is not doing that as it should. There are plenty of good men, not of draft age, who should be given employment and the fighting fellows to be given guns. This nation needs guns now, and not so many pens. And the departments, if they are truly patriotic, should see that the distinction is made. (Pearson's Weekly) The most secret and amazing Court in the world, perhaps, is to be found at the Villa Hugel in Essen. Here in an underground apartment the mansion tenanted by Bertha Krupp, traitors employed at the great Essen death factory are tried for the crime of treachery. Death is their inevitable portion.

The cannon queen herself is the judge. Pitilessly, mercilessly, without a vestige of emotion, she passes the dread sentence. And she sits statuesque and unmoved as the shricks for mercy from the doomed wretch who has sold the carefully guarded secrets of Essen pierce the artificial atmosphere of the chamber. More than one hundred thousand people are employed at Krupp's. Hundreds of nationalities are represented. And although it is the most carefully guarded arsenal in the world, there are occasions when, tempted by noney, workmen disclose some cherished secret to the agent of a foreign a mixed collection of humans like the one to be found at Krupp's.

There are hundreds of detectives ing to and fro unsuspected. All sorts of traps are set. The loyalty of the workers is subjected to the most searching tests. Even wives are induced to test the fidelity of their husbands. And when a Judas is discovered, he or she is arraigned before this amazing Court.

THE PRESIDENT'S APPEAL FOR NATIONAL WAR SAVINGS DAY

President Wilson has issued the following:

This war is one of nations-not of armies-and all of our one hundred million people must be economically and industrially adjusted to war conditions if this nation is to play its full part in the conflict. The problem before us is not primarily a financial problem but rather a problem of increased production of war essentials and the saving of the materials and the labor necessary for the support and equipment of our Army and Navy. Thoughtless expenditure of money for non-essentials uses up the labor of men, the products of the farm, mines, and factories, and overburdens transportation, all of which must be used to the utmost and at their best for war purposes. The great results which we seek can be obtained only by the participation of every member of the nation, young and old, in a national concerted thrift movement. I therefore urge that our people ev-

as suggested by the Secretary of the Treasury, to the pracdesperate need of the civilized world today for materials and labor with which to end the war, the practice of Individual thrift is a patriotic duty and a necessity.

I appeal to all who now own either Liberty Bonds or War Savings Stamps to continue to practice economy and thrift and to appeal to all who do not own Government securities to do likewise and purchase them to the extent of their means. The man who buys Government securities transfers the purchasing power of his money to the United tates Government until after this war, and to that sa not buy in competition with the Government.

I earnestly appeal to every man, woman and child to pledge them selves on or before the 28th of June to save constantly and to buy as regularly as possible the securities of the Government; and to do this as far as possible through membership in War Savings Societies. The 28th of June ends this special period of enlistment in the great volunteer army of production and saving here at home. May there be none unenlisted on that day!
